The above returns are reported in nominal values. Beginning April 1, 2026, the Calgary Foundation adopted net-of-fee performance reporting for all investments. Returns since April 1, 2026 reflect investment management fees and expenses, while returns for periods prior to April 1, 2026 are reported using the Foundation's historical methodology, under which private market investments are reported net of fees and expenses and public market investments are reported before investment management fees.
